2002 Annual Meeting of Stockholders
December 3, 2002

Dear Stockholder:

It's a pleasure for us to extend to you a cordial invitation to attend the 2002 Annual Meeting of Magellan Petroleum Corporation to be held at the Hyatt Regency Orlando International Airport, 9300 Airport Boulevard, Orlando, Florida 32827, on Tuesday, December 3, 2002 at 1:00 P.M. local time (telephone 407-825-1234).

While we are aware that most of our stockholders are unable personally to attend the Annual Meeting, proxies are solicited so that each stockholder has an opportunity to vote on all matters to come before the meeting. Whether or not you plan to attend, please take a few minutes now to sign, date and return your proxy in the enclosed postage-paid envelope. Regardless of the number of shares you own, your vote is important.

Besides helping us conduct business at the annual meeting, there is another reason for you to return your proxy vote card. Under the abandoned property law of some jurisdictions, a stockholder may be considered "missing" if that stockholder has failed to communicate with us in writing. The return of your proxy vote card qualifies as written communication with us.

The Notice of Annual Meeting and Proxy Statement accompanying this letter describe the business to be acted on at the meeting.

As in the past, members of management will review with you the Company's results and will be available to respond to questions during the meeting.

We look forward to seeing you at the meeting.

Sincerely,

James R. Joyce
President

GENERAL INFORMATION

This proxy statement is furnished to stockholders of Magellan Petroleum Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on Tuesday, December 3, 2002 at 1:00 P.M., local time, at the Hyatt Regency Orlando International Airport, 9300 Airport Boulevard, Orlando, Florida 32827 and at any adjournments or postponements thereof. The notice of meeting, proxy statement, and proxy are first being mailed to stockholders on or about October 21, 2002. The proxy may be revoked at any time before it is voted by (i) so notifying the Company in writing; (ii) signing and dating a new and different proxy card of a later date; or (iii) voting your shares in person or by your duly appointed agent at the meeting.

The persons named in the enclosed form of proxy will vote the shares of Common Stock represented by said proxy in accordance with the specifications made by means of a ballot provided in the proxy, and will vote the shares in their discretion on any other matters properly coming before the meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof. The Board of Directors knows of no matters which will be presented for consideration at the meeting other than those matters referred to in this proxy statement.

The record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting has been fixed by the Board of Directors as the close of business on October 21, 2002. On that date, there were 24,607,376 outstanding shares of Common Stock of the Company, par value $.01 per share ("Common Stock"). Each outstanding share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote.

PROPOSAL 1
ELECTION OF TWO DIRECTORS

In accordance with the Company's By-Laws, two directors are to be elected to hold office for terms of three years each, expiring with the 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. The Company's By-Laws provide for three classes of directors who are to be elected for terms of three years each and until their successors shall have been elected and shall have been duly qualified. The nominees, Mr. James R. Joyce and Mr. Timothy L. Largay, are currently directors of the Company. If no one candidate for a directorship receives the affirmative vote of a majority of both the shares voted and of the stockholders present in person or by proxy and voting thereon, then the candidate who receives the majority in number of the stockholders present in person or by proxy and voting thereon shall be elected. The persons named in the accompanying proxy will vote properly executed proxies for the election of the persons named above, unless authority to vote for either or both nominees is withheld.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT STOCKHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" THE ELECTION OF THE NOMINEES.

The following table sets forth certain information about each nominee for director and each director whose term of office continues beyond the 2002 Annual Meeting. The information presented includes, with respect to each such person, his business history for at least the past five years; his age as of the date of this proxy statement; his other directorships, if any; his other positions with the Company, if any; and the year during which he first became a director of the Company.

COMMITTEES

The only standing committee of the Board is the Audit Committee, which is comprised of Messrs. Basso, McCann and Pettirossi. The principal functions of the Audit Committee are: (1) to meet or otherwise communicate with the Chief Financial Officer and those assisting him and request these individuals to undertake such projects and provide such information as the Audit Committee deems appropriate; (2) to approve the engagement or discharge of the Company's independent auditors and meet with such auditors at least quarterly and scrutinize their performance; (3) to review and require documentation relating to periodic reports, statements and filings with regulatory agencies to determine that appropriate review of such material has been made, as provided in the Company's policies, by qualified individuals such as outside legal counsel, independent auditors, the Chief Executive Officer, and other individuals as necessary; (4) to require counsel regularly to advise the Committee as to current legal requirements applicable to the Company; and (5) to report regularly to the Board as to the Company's accounting policies and procedures and compliance therewith.

The Board has no standing nominating, compensation or stock option committees. The functions that would be performed by such committees are performed by the full Board.

Five meetings of the Board and four meetings of the Audit Committee were held during the year ended June 30, 2002. No director attended less than 75% of the aggregate number of meetings held by the Board and the committee on which he served.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE ADDRESSING SPECIFIC MATTERS

On October 29, 1999, the Board of Directors adopted a formal, written charter for the Audit Committee of the Company. Each member of the Audit Committee is an "independent director" for purposes of NASD Marketplace Rule 4200(a)(14).

In connection with the preparation and filing of the Company's audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002 (the "audited financial statements"), the Audit Committee performed the following functions:

The Audit Committee reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements with senior management and Ernst & Young LLP, the Company's independent auditors. The review included a discussion of the quality, not just the acceptability, of the Company's accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of disclosures in the forward looking statements.

The Audit Committee also discussed with Ernst & Young LLP the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 ("Communications With Audit Committees").

The Audit Committee received the written disclosures and the letter from Ernst & Young LLP required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 ("Independence Discussions With Audit Committees"), and discussed with Ernst & Young LLP its independence from the Company and considered the compatibility of the auditors' nonaudit services to the Company, if any, with the auditors' independence.

Based upon the functions performed, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors, and the Board approved, that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002, for filing with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. The Audit Committee and the Board have also recommended, subject to stockholder approval, the selection of Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditors for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2003.

Employment Agreement

Effective January 1, 2000, the Company entered into a three-year employment agreement with Mr. James R. Joyce. The agreement provides for him to be employed as the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company at a base salary of $150,000 per annum, with annual $5,000 increases in base salary, an annual contribution of 15% of the base salary to a SEP/IRA pension plan for Mr. Joyce's benefit, and the reimbursement of certain office expenses. The employment agreement may be terminated for cause (as defined in the agreement), on three months notice by the Company without cause, by Mr. Joyce's resignation or upon a change in control of the Company (as defined in the agreement). Upon a termination without cause or upon a change in control, Mr. Joyce will be entitled to payment of the balance of salary payments due for the term of the agreement.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The only officers or employees of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, or former officers or employees of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, who participated in the deliberations of the Board concerning executive officer compensation during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002 were Messrs. Hedley Howard (Mr. Howard died on December 1, 2001), James R. Joyce and Timothy L. Largay. At the time of such deliberations, Messrs. Howard, Joyce and Largay were directors of the Company and MPAL. Neither Mr. Joyce nor Mr. Howard participated in any discussions or deliberations regarding their own compensation. Mr. Largay does not receive any compensation for his services as Secretary.

Compensation Committee Report

The Company does not maintain a compensation committee; compensation decisions are made by the Board of Directors as a whole. The compensation of each of the Company's executive officers over the past several years has been determined as discussed below. In establishing compensation, the Company has considered the value of the services rendered, the skills and experience of each executive officer, the Company's circumstances and other factors. The Board did not establish specific guidelines governing last year's compensation for executive officers, and there was no specific relationship between corporate performance and the compensation of executive officers in the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002.

The independent directors of MPAL determined Mr. Howard's and Mr. Davies' compensation. Consistent with its usual practice on compensation of MPAL employees, the Board of Directors of the Company did not intervene in that determination. The Company for several years maintained an arrangement with G&O'D INC whereby G&O'D was compensated for its services on an hourly basis, including Mr. Joyce's services as President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company. Statements for such services were submitted to the Company's directors for review and approval. Effective January 1, 2000, Mr. Joyce became a paid officer of the Company and receives a salary in lieu of fees for his services.

Tax Deductibility of Compensation

At this time, the Company does not expect that the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 will have any effect on the Company's executive compensation because it is not likely that the compensation paid to any executive will exceed $1 million.

Compliance with Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's executive officers, directors and persons who beneficially own more than 10% of the Company's Common Stock to file initial reports of beneficial ownership and reports of changes in beneficial ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such persons are required by the SEC regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms filed by such persons. Based solely on copies of forms received by it, or written representations from certain reporting persons that no Form 5's were required for those persons, the Company believes that during the just completed fiscal year, its executive officers, directors, and greater than 10% beneficial owners complied with all applicable filing requirements.

Certain Business Relationships and Transactions

G&O'D INC

During the year ended June 30, 2002, the Company paid G&O'D $34,120 for providing accounting and administrative services, office facilities and support staff, a firm owned by Mr. James R. Joyce, President and Chief Financial Officer. G&O'D's fees are based on the time spent in performing these services to the Company. Effective January 1, 2000, Mr. Joyce became a paid officer of the Company and receives a salary in lieu of fees for his services.

Security Ownership of Management

The following table sets forth information as to the number of shares of the Company's Common Stock owned beneficially as of October 1, 2002 by each director (or nominee director) and each Named Executive Officer listed in the Summary Compensation Table and by all directors and executive officers of the Company as a group:

PROPOSAL 2
RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS

The Board of Directors has appointed Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditors for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2003. Ernst & Young LLP and its predecessor have been the Company's independent auditors for many years. The Board requests that stockholders ratify this appointment, although ratification by stockholders is not required by any applicable law. The proxy permits a stockholder to vote for, to vote against, or to abstain from voting for the ratification of the appointment of auditors. If no specification is indicated, the shares will be voted in favor of ratifying the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP. If ratification is not obtained, the Board will reconsider the appointment. Representatives of Ernst & Young LLP will be present at the Annual Meeting. Fees paid to Ernst & Young LLP by the Company for the year ended June 30, 2002 were as follows:

Audit fees	$135,300
Financial information systems, design and implementation fees	-
All other fees	-

Total fees	$135,300

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT STOCKHOLDERS VOTE "FOR" PROPOSAL 2.

OTHER MATTERS

If any other matters are properly presented to stockholders for a vote at the meeting, the persons named as proxies on the proxy card will have discretionary authority, to the extent permitted by law, to vote on such matters in accordance with their best judgment. The Board of Directors knows of no other matters which will be presented to stockholders for consideration at the meeting other than the matters referred to in Proposals 1 and 2.

VOTE REQUIRED FOR APPROVAL

Each outstanding share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote. Article Twelfth of the Company's Certificate of Incorporation provides that:

"Any matter to be voted upon at any meeting of stockholders must be approved, not only by a majority of the shares voted at such meeting (or such greater number of shares as would otherwise be required by law or this Certificate of Incorporation), but also by a majority of the stockholders present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote thereon; provided, however, except and only in the case of the election of directors, if no candidate for one or more directorships receives both such majorities, and any vacancies remain to be filled, each person who receives the majority in number of the stockholders present in person or by proxy and voting thereon shall be elected to fill such vacancies by virtue of having received such majority. When shares are held by members or stockholders of another company, association or similar entity and such persons act in concert, or when shares are held by or for a group of stockholders whose members act in concert by virtue of any contract, agreement or understanding, such persons shall be deemed to be one stockholder for the purposes of this Article."

The Company may require brokers, banks and other nominees holding shares for beneficial owners to furnish information with respect to such beneficial owners for the purpose of applying the last sentence of Article Twelfth.

Only stockholders of record are entitled to vote; beneficial owners of Common Stock of the Company whose shares are held by brokers, banks and other nominees (such as persons who own shares in "street name") are not entitled to a vote for purposes of applying the provision relating to the vote of a majority of stockholders. Each stockholder of record is considered to be one stockholder, regardless of the number of persons who might have a beneficial interest in the shares held by such stockholder. For example, assume XYZ broker is the stockholder of record for ten persons who each beneficially own 100 shares of the Company, eight of these beneficial owners direct XYZ to vote in favor of a proposal and two direct XYZ to vote against the proposal. For purposes of determining the vote of the majority of shares, 800 shares would be counted in favor of the proposal and 200 shares against the proposal. For purposes of determining the vote of a majority of stockholders, one stockholder would be counted as voting in favor of the proposal.

The holders of thirty-three and one third percent (33 1/3%) of the total number of shares entitled to be voted at the meeting, present in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In counting the number of shares voted, broker nonvotes and abstentions will not be counted and will have no effect. In counting the number of stockholders voting, (i) broker nonvotes will have no effect and (ii) abstentions will have the same effect as a negative vote or, in the case of the election of directors, as a vote not cast in favor of the nominee.

PERFORMANCE GRAPH

The graph below compares the cumulative total returns, including reinvestment of dividends, if applicable, on the Company's Common Stock with the returns on companies in the NASDAQ Index and an Industry Group Index (Media General's Independent Oil and Gas Industry Group).

The chart displayed below is presented in accordance with SEC requirements. The graph assumes a $100 investment made on July 1, 1997 and the reinvestment of all dividends. Stockholders are cautioned against drawing any conclusions from the data contained therein, as past results are not necessarily indicative of future performance.

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

The entire expense of preparing and mailing this proxy statement and any other soliciting material (including, without limitation, costs, if any, related to advertising, printing, fees of attorneys, financial advisors and solicitors, public relations, transportation and litigation) will be borne by the Company. In addition to the use of the mails, the Company or certain of its employees may solicit proxies by telephone, telegram and personal solicitation; however, no additional compensation will be paid to those employees in connection with such solicitation. In addition, the Company has retained the Corporate Governance Group of Strategic Stock Surveillance, LLC to assist in the distribution of proxy solicitation materials for an estimated fee of $4,000 plus out-of-pocket expenses. The cost of the proxy solicitation will be borne by the Company.

Banks, brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries will be requested to forward solicitation material to the beneficial owners of the Common Stock that such institutions hold of record, and the Company will reimburse such institutions for their reasonable out-of-pocket disbursements and expenses.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

Stockholders who intend to have a proposal included in the notice of meeting and related proxy statement relating to the Company's 2003 Annual Meeting of Stockholders must submit the proposal on or before June 23, 2003.

Notice of Business to be Brought Before a Stockholders' Meeting

If a stockholder wishes to present a proposal at the Company's 2003 Annual General Meeting of Stockholders and the proposal is not intended to be included in the Company's proxy statement and form of proxy relating to that meeting, the stockholder must give advance notice to the Company prior to one of two deadlines set forth in the Company's By-Laws.

If a stockholder's proposal relates to business other than the nomination of persons for election to the board of directors, Article II, Section 2.1 applies.

Article II, Section 2.1, of the Company's By-Laws provides in part that

"At an annual meeting of the stockholders, only such business shall be conducted as shall have been properly brought before the meeting. To be properly brought before an annual meeting, business must be (a) specified in the notice of meeting (or any supplement thereto) given by or at the direction of the board of directors, (b) otherwise properly brought before the meeting by or at the direction of the board of directors, or (c) otherwise properly brought before the meeting by a stockholder. For business to be properly brought before an annual meeting by a stockholder, the stockholder must have given timely notice thereof in writing to the Secretary of the corporation. To be timely, a stockholder's notice must be delivered to or mailed and received at the principal executive offices of the corporation, not less than sixty (60) days nor more than ninety (90) days prior to the meeting; provided, however, that in the event that less than seventy days' notice or prior public disclosure of the date of the meeting is given or made to stockholders, notice by the stockholder to be timely must be so received not later than the close of business on the tenth day following the date on which such notice of the date of the annual meeting was mailed or such public disclosure was made. For purposes of this Section 2.1, public disclosure shall be deemed to have been made to stockholders when disclosure of the date of the meeting is first made in a press release reported by the Dow Jones News Services, Associated Press, Reuters Information Services, Inc. or comparable national news service or in a document publicly filed by the corporation with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Sections 13, 14 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

A stockholder's notice to the Secretary shall set forth as to each matter the stockholder proposes to bring before the annual meeting

(a) a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the annual meeting and the reasons for conducting such business at the annual meeting;

(b) the name and address, as they appear on the corporation's books, of the stockholder intending to propose such business;

(c) the class and number of shares of the corporation which are beneficially owned by the stockholder;

(d) a representation that the stockholder is a holder of record of capital stock of the corporation entitled to vote at such meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to present such business;

(e) any material interest of the stockholder in such business."

To be timely under this By-Law, a stockholder proposal must be received no earlier than September 4, 2003, but no later than October 4, 2003, which is the time period not less than 60 days nor more than 90 days prior to the first anniversary of this year's Annual General Meeting of Stockholders.

Nominations of Persons for Election to the Board of Directors

If a stockholder's proposal relates to the nomination of persons for election to the board of directors, Article II, Section 2.2 applies.

Article II, Section 2.2 Notice of Stockholder Nominees of the Company's By-Laws provides that,

Only persons who are nominated in accordance with the procedures set forth in these By-Laws shall be eligible for election as directors. Nominations of persons for election to the board of directors of the corporation may be made at a meeting of stockholders (a) by or at the direction of the board of directors or (b) by any stockholder of the corporation entitled to vote for the election of directors at the meeting who complies with the notice procedures set forth in this Section 2.2. Nominations by stockholders shall be made pursuant to timely notice in writing to the Secretary of the corporation. To be timely, a stockholder's notice shall be delivered to or mailed and received at the principal executive offices of the corporation not less than sixty (60) days nor more than ninety (90) days prior to the meeting; provided, however, that in the event that less than seventy days' (70) notice or prior public disclosure of the date of the meeting is given or made to stockholders, notice by the stockholder to be timely must be so received not later than the close of business on the 10th day following the day on which such notice of the date of the meeting was mailed or such public disclosure was made. For purposes of this Section 2.2, public disclosure shall be deemed to have been made to stockholders when disclosure of the date of the meeting is first made in a press release reported by the Dow Jones News Services, Associated Press, Reuters Information Services, Inc. or comparable national news service or in a document publicly filed by the corporation with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Sections 13, 14 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Each such notice shall set forth:

(a) the name and address of the stockholder who intends to make the nomination and of the person or persons to be nominated;

(b) a representation that the stockholder is a holder of record of stock of the corporation entitled to vote at such meeting and intends to appear in person or by proxy at the meeting to nominate the person or persons specified in the notice;

(c) a description of all arrangements or understandings between the stockholder and each nominee and any other person or persons (naming such person or persons) pursuant to which the nomination or nominations are to be made by the stockholder; and

(d) such other information regarding each nominee proposed by such stockholder as would be required to be included in a proxy statement filed pursuant to the proxy rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, had the nominee been nominated, or intended to be nominated, by the board of directors.

To be effective, each notice of intent to make a nomination given hereunder shall be accompanied by the written consent of each nominee to being named in a proxy statement and to serve as a director of the corporation if elected.

No person shall be eligible for election as a director of the corporation unless nominated in accordance with the procedures set forth in these By-Laws. The presiding officer of the meeting shall, if the facts warrant, determine and declare to the meeting that nomination was not made in accordance with the procedures prescribed by these By-Laws, and if he should so determine, he shall so declare to the meeting and the defective nomination shall be disregarded.

To be timely under this By-Law, a stockholder notice must be received no earlier than September 4, 2003, but no later than October 4, 2003, which is the time period not less than 60 days nor more than 90 days prior to the first anniversary of this year's Annual General Meeting of Stockholders.

All stockholder proposals should be submitted to the Secretary of Magellan Petroleum Corporation at Box 1146 Madison, CT 06443-1146. The fact that a stockholder proposal is received in a timely manner does not insure its inclusion in the proxy material, since there are other requirements in the Company's By-Laws and the proxy rules relating to such inclusion.

THE COMPANY'S ANNUAL REPORT ON FORM 10-K FOR THE YEAR ENDED JUNE 30, 2002 FILED WITH THE U. S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION MAY BE OBTAINED UPON WRITTEN REQUEST TO THE COMPANY, BOX 1146, MADISON, CONNECTICUT 06443-1146, ATTENTION: MR. JAMES R. JOYCE.
