Magellan Petroleum’s Shareholders Approve Exchange Offer for Shares of Australian Subsidiary

Hartford, Conn., February 23, 2006 — At its annual meeting, the shareholders of Magellan Petroleum Corporation (“Magellan”) voted overwhelmingly to approve the issuance of approximately 15.7 million shares of Magellan common stock to acquire all of the ordinary shares of Magellan Petroleum Australia Limited (“MPAL”) that it does not currently own.

Walter McCann, Chairman of Magellan’s Board of Directors, stated “I am extremely pleased with the results of the voting at the Annual Meeting and the overwhelming support for the Exchange Offer. The Board of Directors of Magellan believes that the Exchange Offer is in the best interests of the shareholders of both companies.”

Magellan (NASDAQ: MPET) currently has a 55.13% ownership interest in MPAL (Australian Stock Exchange — code MAG). Under the terms of Exchange Offer, as revised on January 24, 2006, Magellan is offering to exchange 0.75 of a share of Magellan common stock and A$0.10 in cash consideration for each outstanding minority MPAL share.

If Magellan receives sufficient exchanges of MPAL shares to achieve over 90% per cent ownership, Magellan will be able to proceed with a compulsory acquisition under Australian law to make MPAL a wholly-owned subsidiary of Magellan. The benefits to Magellan and MPAL will include a simpler, unified capital structure, more efficient use of consolidated financial resources, facilitation of access to capital markets and cost savings associated with the elimination of public shareholders at the MPAL level.

At a meeting held today, Magellan’s Board of Directors determined that the current terms of the Exchange Offer, as previously revised on January 24, 2006, constitute Magellan’s final offer terms. Under Australian law, Magellan is no longer able to increase the terms of the Exchange Offer. The Board also determined that the Offer Period will be extended by eight additional days, from March 9, 2006, to March 17, 2006, in order to give MPAL shareholders sufficient time to transmit their acceptances of the Exchange Offer to Magellan’s share registry.

The Board has also determined to waive all of its conditions, other than the 90% and the related ASX conditions, applicable to the Exchange Offer. They are described in “Terms of the Offer,” included as Appendix A to Magellan’s Bidder’s Statement dated November 29, 2005. Accordingly, the Exchange Offer remains subject to the condition that Magellan acquire at least 90% of MPAL’s outstanding shares on or before March 17, 2006, the end of the prescribed Offer Period, and to the related condition that the Australian Stock Exchange (“ASX”) admits Magellan’s shares in the form of Magellan CDIs to quotation no later than 7 days after the Offer Period.

Magellan has filed its Second Supplementary Bidder's Statement with the Australian Securities and Investments Commission and the ASX to announce the voting results of Magellan's Annual Meeting and to explain the determinations of the Board of Directors described above with respect to the Exchange Offer. On February 24, 2006, Magellan mailed its Second Supplementary Bidder's Statement to MPAL's Australian shareholders, together with a letter from Walter McCann, Chairman of Magellan's Board of Directors.

Magellan's shareholders also voted today to re-elect Timothy L. Largay to Magellan's Board of Directors, to hold office for a term of three years expiring with the 2008 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, and to ratify the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP as Magellan's independent auditors for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2006.

Forward Looking Statements

Statements in this release which are not historical in nature are intended to be, and are hereby identified as, forward-looking statements for purposes of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements about Magellan and MPAL relate to their businesses and prospects, revenues, expenses, operating cash flows, the benefits of the proposed Exchange Offer, and other matters that involve a number of uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ materially from expectations. Among these risks and uncertainties are the successful completion of the Exchange Offer, pricing and production levels from the properties in which Magellan and MPAL have interests, the extent of the recoverable reserves at those properties, the future outcome of the negotiations for gas sales contracts for the remaining uncontracted reserves at both the Mereenie and Palm Valley gas fields in the Amadeus Basin, including the likelihood of success of other potential suppliers of gas to the current customers of Mereenie and Palm Valley production. In addition, MPAL has a large number of exploration permits and faces the risk that any wells drilled may fail to encounter hydrocarbons in commercially recoverable quantities. Any forward-looking information provided in this release should be considered with these factors in mind. Magellan assumes no obligation to update any forward-looking statements contained in this release, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. This press release is for informational purposes only and shall not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy any securities of Magellan.

Second Supplementary Bidder’s Statement for the Offer by Magellan Petroleum Corporation (ARBN 117 452 454) to acquire all the Shares it does not already own in Magellan Petroleum Australia Limited (ACN 009 728 581) — 24 February 2006

LETTER FROM THE CHAIRMAN OF MAGELLAN PETROLEUM CORPORATION

Dear MPAL Shareholder,

“Accept Magellan’s FINAL offer NOW
.....do not delay on this unique opportunity”

Offer declared UNCONDITIONAL (other than 90% and ASX conditions¹)

I am pleased to be writing to you once again in connection with our Offer to acquire MPAL Shares, as more fully detailed in the Original and the Supplementary Bidder’s Statements previously sent to you.

We are now able to advise you that on 23 February in the United States, the Magellan Shareholders provided the necessary approvals for the Offer and, accordingly, that condition of the Offer has been satisfied.

Following this approval the Board of Directors of Magellan determined that:

- The Offer is final.
- Other than the 90% and ASX quotation conditions¹, the Offer is unconditional.
- The Offer Period has been extended by 8 days.
- Payment of the Offer Consideration will be fast-tracked².

By declaring the Offer FINAL and UNCONDITIONAL (other than the 90% and ASX conditions), under Australian law we cannot now increase it, so there is no benefit in delaying your acceptance.

Our Offer is 7.5 Magellan Shares and A$1.00 cash for every 10 MPAL Shares. The market value of the Offer is:

A$2.08, based on volume weighted average price³ (“VWAP”) of Magellan Shares in the period from 23 December 2005 to 22 February 2006, which is also the latest closing price⁴ of Magellan Shares on 22 February 2006, reflecting a significant premium to benchmarks as shown below:

	OFFER PREMIUM on VWAP and Closing Price
A$1.46 latest closing price for MPAL Shares	42%
A$1.35 closing price of MPAL on the Offer Announcement Date	54%
A$1.27 the book value of MPAL’s net assets at 30 June 2005	64%

Our Offer also compares favourably to A$1.65, being the MPAL Independent Expert’s ‘preferred’ assessment of the notional intrinsic value of MPAL less an adjustment of A$0.41 per MPAL Share to account for the full value of the possible loss of uncontracted Mereenie gas sales after 2009....a premium of 26%.

The liquidity in Magellan's share trading on NASDAQ is significantly greater than MPAL's liquidity on the Australian Stock Exchange. In the last 12 months, the number of Magellan Shares traded (3.3 million per week, on average) was 23 times greater than the trading in MPAL (144,000 per week, on average).

This is a unique and not-to-be-missed opportunity for you as an MPAL Shareholder to receive

- an attractive premium to the market value of your MPAL Shares,
- and
- higher liquidity for your investment.

Attaining 90% is a key remaining condition. Once Magellan is able to declare the Offer free of the two remaining conditions ¹ accepting shareholders will be paid promptly. To assist in achieving this you should accept now.

To provide shareholders with extra time to send in their acceptances, we have extended our Offer closing date by eight days. It is important that you send your Acceptance Form in sufficient time to reach Magellan's share registry by 9 March, the Conditions Notice date for the Offer⁵.

We have enclosed another Acceptance Form and a reply paid envelope for your convenience. Shareholders should read all the documentation mailed to them since the announcement of the Offer, and should seek their own professional advice, if required. If you have any questions please call the Shareholder Information Line on 1300 551 398 (within Australia) or +61 3 9415 4303 (from outside Australia).

Yours sincerely

Walter McCann
Chairman

Magellan hereby gives notice under Section 650D of the Corporations Act that:

- in any other case, be in writing to Magellan.

If a MPAL Shareholder is legally entitled to give, and does in fact give, a Withdrawal Notice within the Withdrawal Period, Magellan will before the end of 14 days after the day it is given the Withdrawal Notice:

- return to the MPAL Shareholder any documents that were sent by the MPAL Shareholder to Magellan with acceptance of the Offer; and
